

(English-language modules available for exchange students (newcomers to Department 03))

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Area Studies
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	12 CP
Level	In-depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module for Incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cite basic approaches to area studies, • describe the interaction of local, regional and global processes, • determine actors in these processes at a regional level.
Content (topic and contents)	The courses within the module will impart knowledge of political, social, cultural and religious interactions in selected regions of the world. Current manifestations are addressed in the context of historical developments.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecture/Seminar 2 SWS • Lecture/Seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Term paper (25,000-30,000 characters), oral group presentation (30 minutes) or poster presentation (30 minutes)
Grading	Module grading per § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 120 h • Preparation and follow-up: 180 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Global Conflict and Cooperation
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit Points	12 CP
Level	In-Depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module for Incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify global conflicts and cooperation using examples of institutions and actors, • explain selected theoretical approaches to global conflicts and cooperation, • critically examine selected topics in a global context.
Content (topic and contents)	The courses in this module impart knowledge of international social conflicts and cooperation. Theoretical approaches are supplemented by analysis of conflicts and cooperation in a global context.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecture/Seminar 2 SWS • Lecture/Seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Modulprüfung: Term paper (25,000-30,000 characters), oral group presentation (30 minutes) or conflict analysis (25,000-30,000 characters)
Grading	Module grading per § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 120 h • Preparation and follow-up: 180 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h

Module name Englische Übersetzung ggf. Modulkürzel	Plurality and Inequality
Module responsibility	Ulrike Bieker
Credit points	6 CP
Level	In-Depth
Degree of obligation	Compulsory elective
Requirements for participation	Status/Type of graduation of incomers
Duration of the module	One semester
Frequency of the module; start	Every semester (summer and winter)
Usability of the module	Export module for Incomers
Qualification objectives (skills)	At the end of the module, participants will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify integration and mutual influence of actors in pluralistic societies, • describe challenges and models of how society deals with pluralism and inequality.
Content (topic and contents)	The courses in the module impart knowledge of the social characteristics of pluralism and inequality. Models of data collection are combined in close interaction with the investigation of selected case studies.
Type of course (format after KapVO, SWS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lecture/Seminar 2 SWS
Teaching and learning form	Lecture, seminar with input from the instructor, guided group discussions, interactive work sessions or presentations
Language of teaching and examination	English
Requirements for awarding ECTS credit points (Type of examination, extent, duration, processing time)	Module examination: Essay (18,000-20,000 characters) or oral group presentation (20 minutes) or portfolio (18,000-20,000 characters)
Grading	Module grading per § 28 AB (Master)
Amount of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attendance in classes: 60 h • Preparation and follow-up: 60 h • Preparation and completion of the examination: 60 h