

July 03, 2026
University Library, Room
B008

CANADA

DAY

2026

Resilient Communities

13:30-13:45	Opening Remarks by Prof. Dr. Carmen Birkle
13:45-14:45	Prof. Dr. Nicole Waller University of Potsdam, Germany “Beyond Settler Worlds: ‘Generative Refusal’ in the Work of Leanne Betasamosake Simpson and Wayde Compton”
15:00-16:00	Karina Vernon University of Toronto Scarborough, Canada “Durable Archives: Black Cowboys and Multi-Species Communities in the Canadian Nineteenth Century”
16:00-16:30	Break
16:30-17:00	Dr. Matthias Dickert Marburg Center for Canadian Studies, Germany “Canadian Muslims: Accepted or Rejected? Cultural, Political, and Literary Responses”
17:00-17:30	Prof. Dr. Brigitte Johanna Glaser Georg-August-Universität, Göttingen, Germany “Fostering Resilience — Norma Dunning’s Textual Mediation of Inuit Experience and Traditional Values”
17:30-18:00	Dr. Anca-Raluca Radu Georg-August-Universität, Göttingen, Germany “‘I had no story’: Survivance and Life Writing in Stolen Life by Rudy Wiebe and Yvonne Johnson (1998)”
18:00-18:30	Marie Zarda Philipps-Universität Marburg, Germany “Canadian Queer Communities on the Global Stage: Canada’s Drag Race as a Site of Identity Making”
18:30-18:45	Break
18:45-19:45	Shani Mootoo Novelist and Visual Artist, Canada “Our Planet, a Model of Resilience”
19:45-20:00	Reading
20:00	Reception